MASS OF THANKSGIVING TO BE CELEBRATED

DAYTON, Ohio, January 27, 1981 -- A Mass of Thanksgiving for the return of the 52 American hostages will be celebrated Thursday, January 29 at the University of Dayton Immaculate Conception Chapel, 9 p.m. The public is invited.

Fr. Mark Paduk of the University's campus ministry will conduct the service with students of the Glenmary Home Missioners religious order, some of whose members study at the University.

Paduk said the Glenmary students regularly plan music for Thursday Masses on campus. And for this week, at the suggestion of campus ministry director Fr. Joseph Lackner, the students decided to devote the music to themes of "thanksgiving and reconciliation for the wounds suffered (by the American hostages)." Music for guitar and organ will be performed.
